

Proclamation

by

Andy Beshear
Governor

of the

Commonwealth of Kentucky

To All To Whom These Presents Shall Come:

- WHEREAS, Sudden Unexplained Death in Childhood (SUDC) is a category of death in children between the ages of 1 and 18 that remains unexplained after a thorough investigation, including an autopsy; and
- WHEREAS, Each year, there are approximately 400 cases of SUDC in the United States - including more than 200 in children under the age of 5 - representing children who die without any clear cause or explanation; and
- WHEREAS, While less common than Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS), which occurs before the first birthday, SUDC is an important health concern deserving of increased public awareness and research; and
- WHEREAS, SUDC is the 5th leading cause of death among children ages 1 to 4, and at the present time, there is no way to prevent SUDC as its cause(s) is unknown, but it is hoped that future research will identify means by which SUDC can be prevented; and
- WHEREAS, We recognize the dedicated efforts of organizations such as the SUDC Foundation, medical professionals, medicolegal death investigators, and volunteers that are working to better understand the causes of sudden unexplained death, improve the health of infants and children, and provide much needed hope and support for those families grieving the heartbreaking sudden unexplained death of a child; and
- WHEREAS, Sudden Unexplained Death in Childhood Awareness Month provides an opportunity to honor the memories of the young lives that ended too soon, show encouragement and support for the families and loved ones forever devastated by their loss, and increase public awareness of SUDC and the ongoing search for answers;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ANDY BESHEAR, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby proclaim March 2023, as
